++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine and showers today, these potentially heavy in east.

Today:
Sunshine and showers today, with western areas drier and brightest, while the afternoon showers across Down and Antrim will turn more frequent, potentially heavy and slow moving with the risk of hail and thunder. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Clear spells and showers, these heavier and more frequent across eastern areas early evening, then in the west towards dawn, as strong to gale west to northwest winds develop. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Monday:
Showers or longer periods of occasionally heavy rain for morning. Turning drier through afternoon, leaving only scattered showers for evening. Northwest winds strong to gale, perhaps severe gale, at first. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Mainly dry, bright in south, with north to northwest winds largely restricting showers to coastal fringes. Here outbreaks occasional Tuesday, isolated Wednesday, then mostly died out Thursday as pressure builds.
